Monthly Reports:

Social Director: Janet gave everyone who helped with the Perryville Road Cleanup a very special "Thank You". She announced that the mini run for April 18th has been cancelled. The Hooters Car Show does need hosts and a date. If you can help with this car show, please contact Steve Jackson. Also, Harry Pointon will need help with the Roscoe Auto Car Show, and hosts are needed for the Fall Bonfire. Signup sheets went around for the mini run July 24th to the winery, and July 18th for the golf outing. Tauna Billups reminded everyone of the Spring Run May 1st, so far there are 24 cars going.

Memberships: Bruce Mayer stated that we currently now have 128 members for 2010. Bruce is still trying to clear up one of the renewals from last year. Remember if you need any brochures see Bruce after the meeting, and he can get you some. Also, keep brochures in your car so you can hand them out at anytime to someone who is interested in the club.

Governor: Arnie Bailey wanted to remind everyone who does racing for the year to go to the webpage. You are able to print off flyers, map, etc. to every competition. They just had the Regional Party at Tinley Park, Ill, they got to do the walk thru for next years convention. There is only 14 more months til next years convention, June 18-24,2011 so mark your calendars.!!!

Treasurer: John Mink stated that the numbers are year to date. The only expenses so far this year for the club has been the newsletter, so finances are right on track.

Parade Director: Carole Mayer stated that our first parade coming up is May 29th, It is the Young at Heart Parade. We will meet at 8:30 am at Woodward and Governor. Our second parade is Pecantocia Parade May 31st. We will meet at 2:00 PM at RT 20 and Conger Road. Our 3rd parade is Harvard Milk Day, June 5th and then June 6th is Lear River Parade. Information on those 2 parades will follow.

Editor: Richard Swihart stated this is it, March is our last hard copy of the newsletter. We will only send it out in the mail, to members who do not get email. Starting in April he will have a special "Award Page", so look for that.

Parliamentarian: Dave Baxter not present.

Sergeant-at-arms: Phil Anders no report.
