Membership

Bruce Mayer advised our membership is at 167 since the last meeting. New members are: Doug & Tauna Billips, they have a 1999 Red CV. Also joining at the Home Depot show are John & Lori Robertson who have a 1978 Silver and Black pace car. They are daughter and son-in-law of our members Chuck & Rosemary Kruse. We welcome them to NICC. Bruce also reminded members that the end of August is renewal time for the 2009 year, so renewal forms will be coming in the mail. And remember they need to be turned back in by October 15,2008 to avoid the $10.00 late fee. You may either bring them to the September or October meeting or mail them in.

As you see more corvettes out, either pass out the pamphlets to them or leave the pamphlets on the car for them. And remember to include your name and phone number so they may contact you for information on the club.

Governor

Arnie Bailey gave a brief report on the races in Burlington, and thanked Bruce & Carol Mayer and Jon Stroberg for making the trip and helping. Advised members to check the web site for all race information.
