Northern Illinois Corvette Club

The Northern Illinois Corvette Club was founded in 1972 and currently has over 130 members. The group is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to promotion of charitable causes and events through their connection with the great American sports car, the Chevrolet Corvette.

Through their many events the group has raised more than $20,000 for various activities and organizations including the support of our troops in the Middle East.

NICC's sponsors for the parade today are: Bocker Chevrolet, "your organization", etc. The groups monthly meetings are held on the first Sunday of each month at the Thunder Bay Grille in Rockford. For more information visit their website at "www.NICCCORVETTE.com"

NOTES:

Please send a business card along with your payment so that we can make pendants for display on our vehicles during the parade (see attached examples).

In order to allow sufficient time to prepare the pendants please respond by 2-3 weeks prior to your selected parade(s).....Thank you for your support.
